

Apply for the NETFA Leadership Program

Become an advocate to end
FGM/C

A paid, national leadership program for people from communities and countries affected by Female Genital Mutilation / Cutting / Circumcision.

The NETFA project is coordinated by the Multicultural Centre for Women's Health, a feminist organisation for migrant and refugee women to achieve equity in women's health and wellbeing.

More information

What is NETFA?

NETFA stands for the National Education Toolkit for Female Genital Mutilation / Cutting / Circumcision (FGM/C) Awareness, which is a project coordinated by the Multicultural Centre for Women's Health.

What is the Program about?

The NETFA Leadership Program is an opportunity for people who want to help lead positive change in their communities and bring an end to the practice of FGM/C globally.

Who is this program for?

We are looking for people who:

- Come from communities where FGM/C is practiced
- Are passionate about ending FGM/C in the communities they are a part of
- Are open to learning in a diverse group environment

This program is open to:

- People across Australia
- All ages and genders
- Both community members and professionals

When and where?

Weekly, 2 hour online sessions from April - October 2022.

What will I learn about?

- Deep understanding about the complex issue of FGM/C
- Leadership skills
- Communication and public speaking skills
- Podcast / video / digital storytelling skills

How much does it cost?

The program is free! As a participant, you will be paid a casual, part-time salary of $45 per hour plus superannuation and WorkCover.

How do I apply?

Applications open on 06 February 2022 -

International Day of Zero Tolerance for Female Genital Mutilation.

Apply online via NETFA website below.

The application should take approximately 30 minutes to complete.

Key dates

- Applications open 6 February 2022.
- Applications close 27 February 2022.
- Applicants will be notified after 7 March 2022.

The NETFA Leadership Program will begin in the week of 4 April 2022.

www.netfa.com.au

Questions? Contact rani@mcwh.com.au

NETFA is supported by the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet's Office for Women.

